

AT THE END OF THE PLACEMENT

What happens at the end of the 9 months?

They should have successfully completed their relevant NVQ, giving them a recognised qualification and experience. In order to ensure that they achieve this, a six month formal review will be put in place to ensure that the apprentice is on track to completion.

Do I have to offer them a permanent role?

They will be fully trained and qualified in your business and area of expertise and demonstrated the right behaviours. We would hope that you would consider them for any vacancies you may have at that time. However we do not guarantee them a permanent position on completion of the course.
