

CROYDON BUSINESS AWARDS

The inaugural Croydon Business Awards in 2011 saw hundreds of local businesses from start-ups to major internationals take part in the competition to find the borough's best.

The 2012 awards, launching in December 2011, aim to build on that success, providing an unrivalled opportunity for companies to network and raise their profile, supporting the borough's economic success.

Peter Pledger, chief executive of South London Business, said: "The awards celebrate the success and brilliance of businesses in Croydon. They recognise what is good and successful about the borough and demonstrate that success to all who live and work in Croydon as well as across South London."

Awards are available for individual sponsorship and/or as part of packages with other awards across South London, including the South London Business Awards themselves. Draft award categories for Croydon in 2012 are:

- Best Small Business
- Best Medium Business
- Best Commitment to the Community
- Best Customer Service
- Best Retailer
- Best Business for Innovation
- Best Business for Marketing
- Best New Business
- Best Business for Training and Development
- Entrepreneur of the Year
- Best Business for Sustainability
- Best International Business
