

Build South London:
Getting Construction Work in Kingston
Thursday 3rd December 2009, 4pm – 6.30pm
Holiday Inn, Leatherhead Road, Chessington, KT9 2NE

Do you work in the construction industry?

Are you looking for new tendering opportunities and new contacts?

If you work in the construction industry, and are looking for new opportunities Build South London invites you join us for our Getting Construction Work in Kingston event:

- Find out about construction contract opportunities in Kingston
- Learn what you can do to increase your chances of being asked to quote
- Make personal contact with the main contractors and decision makers working in Kingston and the surrounding area
- Find out about the business and training support available to help you win more work

A range of buyers from companies, including Mansell and Smith & Byford, are looking forward to meeting you to explain their projects and what you need to do to get a share of it. Put this date in your diary now and don't miss this opportunity to help build south London.

This event is funded by the European Regional Development Fund and is free to attend. You are welcome to invite other suppliers you work with.

To book your place contact Lauren Holyhead on 020 8256 1289 with your name and company contact details, or complete the attached booking form. Bookings are limited to two per company.
